FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kent County Levy Court Is Hiring Hearing Officers for Temporary Work

Dover, Del. – As the next phase of the reassessment project approaches, Kent County Levy Court is seeking Hearing Officers to review formal appeals with property owners that have appealed their reassessment value from Tyler Technologies. Officers will be trained in advance of the appeals process.

County officials anticipate the hearing process to last 6-8 weeks. Some evening sessions may be required.

Multiple hearing officers will be hired.

The pay will be $250/day, for a full 8-hour day.

Job Duties entail:

Sitting one-on-one with the appellant.

Listening to the Appellant.

Reviewing documents provided by the appellant.

Making recommendation(s) to the Board of Assessment Review

Making a motion to dismiss if no evidence is provided.

Knowledge of the local real estate market is desired, but not required.

Guidelines will be given during training.

If interested, send a letter of intent and a resume to:
